

SPRING 2008

The Northeast Florida Beef Forage Group consists of Extension Agents from Alachua, Baker, Bradford, Clay, Columbia, Duval, Nassau, Suwannee and Union Counties.

Our goal is to provide Extension Programming for beef and forage producers that will result in increased profitability and sustainability.

For more information about the Extension Services provided in your area or upcoming programs contact your local county agent or visit our website.

<http://nfbfg.ifas.ufl.edu>

PASTURE MANAGEMENT FIELD DAY

Location: North Florida Research and Education Center-
Suwannee Valley
7580 CR 136 Live Oak, FL

Date: April 5th, 2008.

Time: 8:30 am to 12:30 pm.

Fee: $10.00 (Lunch and hand-outs will be provided.)

To register call: (386)362-1725 ext.101 or (386)752-5384 before April 1st, 2008.

PROGRAM

8: 30– 9:00 am.	Registration
9:00– 9:15 am.	Welcome and Introductions. Elena Toro, Chair. Beef and Forage Group
9:15-10:00 am.	Station 1. Bahiagrass, Bermudagrass and Perennial Peanut Varieties Overview. Cindy Sanders, Alachua County. & Elena Toro, Columbia County.
10:15-11:00 am.	Station 2. Planting Demonstrations. Mike Sweat, Baker County, Steve Gaul, Nassau County & Tim Wilson, Bradford County
11:15-12:00 am.	Station 3. Weed Control (Pastures and Basal Treatments). Dr. Jacque Breman, Union County & Barton Wilder, Alachua County.
12:00-12:30 pm.	Visit Irrigation Equipment Booths & Water Management Districts Representatives. Brad Burbaugh, Duval County.
12:30-1:00 pm.	Lunch & Collect Program Evaluations.
1:00 pm.	Adjourn